Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association elects new members to the Board of Directors

[Oklahoma City, OK – July 23, 2024] – The Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association (OCA) elected six new board members and two new Executive Committee members at the 72nd Annual OCA Convention and Trade Show. OCA board members are elected to represent their respective district and serve a three-year term. Executive Committee members are elected by district also and serve a four-year term.

New board members elected include:

- Erin Metcalf of Cherokee for the Northwest District
- Will Cubbage of Newkirk for the North Central District
- Mark Yazel of Vinita for the Northeast District
- Logan Snow of Frederick for the Southwest District
- Bob Freeman of Shawnee for the South Central District
- Penny Jones of Wilburton for the Southeast District

New Executive Committee members include:

- Paul Tuley of Loco for the South Central District
- Roger Wann of Poteau for the Southeast District

"OCA is blessed with great leadership. The leaders are committed to being involved in the beef cattle industry and help OCA shape a successful and prosperous business climate for Oklahoma beef cattle producers," said Byron Yeoman, Immediate Past President of OCA and chairman of the Nominating Committee.

The OCA is the trusted voice of the Oklahoma Cattle Industry and works to protect and empower Oklahoma cattlemen today, to serve tomorrow. OCA is the only voice that speaks solely for the cattlemen of Oklahoma and represents beef producers in all 77 counties across the state. The OCA officers, board of directors and membership encourages you to join us in our advocacy efforts to ensure less government intervention, lower taxes, and a better bottom line.
