

Ford Drummond Pawhuska

Ford was born and raised in Osage County, Oklahoma and is the third generation managing the family ranch where his great-grandfather settled prior to statehood. The Drummond Ranch is located in the tall grass prairie region of the Osage, and consists of a diversified cow-calf, stocker and BLM wild horse operation.

Ford earned a B.A. in economics from Stanford University and a law degree from the University of Virginia. Prior to managing the family ranch, he was in private practice in San Francisco, served as Legislative Assistant to a Member of Congress, and was Legislative Counsel for the American Medical Association in Washington, D.C.

Ford serves on several local, state and national boards, including the Osage County Cattlemen's Association, Woolaroc, the Oklahoma Nature Conservancy, BancFirst Corporation and Virtus Mutual Funds. Ford and his wife, Vanessa, live in Bartlesville, Oklahoma where they raised their three children: Virginia, Frederick, and Margaret.
