

Kelli Payne, Chair Mustang

Kelli Payne is a proud fifth generation farmer and rancher from Mustang, Oklahoma. She attended high school at Amber-Pocasset and went to college at Oklahoma State University. She has had the opportunity to serve as an assistant to former Congressman Wes Watkins prior to his retirement and to serve as an Executive Director for a number of Main Street organizations in Oklahoma. Combining her dedication for promoting the agricultural industry, past nonprofit experience, and her passion for economic development, she strives to share her personal story along with the wonderful heritage of agriculture's role in Oklahoma City's history. She currently serves as North Central District Vice President for the Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association and is a graduate of the Cattlemen's Leadership Academy Class XXVI.
